

Agile in Action Podcast Guest Guide

<https://www.agileinaction.com>

About the podcast

The Agile in Action podcast serves our listeners with unique and timely views of the people working tirelessly to modernize how teams work. The podcast is committed to building a passionate community for people ready to make positive changes in their organizations.

Call for topics

The Agile in Action podcast showcases inspiring stories from guests in a diverse number of industries.

Topics we like to explore

cultural change • agile frameworks • team flow • technology enablement • collaboration

Become a guest

We will hold a short, 15-minute meeting to discuss the topic and theme for the podcast and then another 1-hour, audio-only web meeting to record the conversation.

Propose your topic at <https://calendly.com/billraymond/15min>

Contact our executive producer at Reama.Dagasan@Cambermast.com

Contact Bill at Bill.Raymond@Cambermast.com

A unique opportunity

With a global reach, the Agile in Action podcast is a valuable promotional opportunity for your personal or business brand. To increase your visibility, please provide the following so we can share more about you on our website and in the podcast show notes:

-  A square headshot
-  Links to help our audience find you

About your host

Bill Raymond is an award-winning speaker, agile transformation leader, consultant, author, and trainer. Along with hosting the Agile in Action podcast, Bill is the CEO of Cambermast, a strategic business consulting firm that partners with clients to deliver their most critical projects.